ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS HELD FOR FUTURE RELEASE

DISPLAY TO ALL:

The next few questions are related to people who are transgender, that is, people whose gender is different from the sex they were assigned at birth (such as a person assigned male at birth who identifies as a woman).

Issues related to gender identity have been in the news recently, and we are interested in learning what the American public thinks about these issues.

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS HELD FOR FUTURE RELEASE OR PREVIOUSLY RELEASED

¹ In the 2021 and 2017 surveys, question wording was, "Thinking about the people you know, including yourself, do you personally know anyone who is transgender, or not?" Additionally, the definition of "transgender" appeared before this question and was worded as "people who identify as a gender that is different from the sex they were assigned at birth, like a person born male who now identifies as a woman."

² In the 2016 survey, question wording was, "Do you personally know anyone who is transgender, or not?" The response options were, "Yes, I know someone who is transgender" and "No, I do not." In this survey, "transgender" was defined as "people who now identify and live as females but were born male" and "people who now identify and live as males but were born female."
